Police Searching for Woman Who Took Two Children

FRISCO, TX – The Frisco Police Department is searching for Leslie Anne Hurt (W/F 12/01/1966), a Frisco resident and mother of two who took her two daughters, ages 6 and 8, against a judge's orders. Frisco detectives obtained two felony warrants for Hurt for the offense of Interference with Child Custody, a state jail felony.

Detectives are concerned for the children's welfare, as they have not been in school all week. Additionally, authorities are concerned for the mental status of Hurt.

Hurt is a reservist in the U.S. Marine Corps, is a competitive shooter, and is believed to be armed with a handgun. Hurt should be considered armed and dangerous. Hurt is described as a white female, 5'11" tall, approximately 145 lbs, and is believed to be driving a silver Toyota Camry with Texas license 858-HTT. Hurt's last known location was in the Houston area on Saturday, November 7. It is unknown if she will remain in Texas or flee the state.

If you encounter Hurt, please contact authorities immediately. A photo of Hurt is attached with this press release.
